

Habitat Library & Resource Centre

Revised Norms and Guidelines for the use of the Habitat Library & Resource Centre (HLRC)

The Habitat Library & Resource Centre (HLRC) opened in a limited manner from September 7, 2020. In view of the prevailing situation with reference to COVID-19 and government advisories in light of the same, our revised operation guidelines are as provided below. These Guidelines replace the earlier HLRC Guidelines, which were in force.

Location of the Habitat Library & Resource Centre

The Habitat Library & Resource Centre (HLRC) is located on the second floor of the Convention Centre.

Working Hours

- Monday – Saturday: 10:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.
- Entry to the HLRC is not allowed after 6:45 p.m.
- HLRC will remain closed on Sundays and other closed holidays.

Entry and Parking in IHC

- Four wheelers will be allowed entry only from Gate No. 1 (round the clock) & Gate No. 2 (8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday to Sunday), Gate No. 3 (6.30 a.m. to 11 p.m.). Exit for four wheelers will be only from Gate No. 2 (8 a.m. to 8 p.m.), Gate No. 3 (6.30 a.m. till midnight) and Gate No. 3A (round the clock). It may be noted that Exit is not allowed from Gate No. 1.
- Mandatory thermal screening will be done at all the entry gates.
- Directions have been provided for parking the vehicles. Preferably, the vehicles may be parked at the surface parking or South Block parking, although vehicles may be parked at any other available parking space as well.

Access to the HLRC

- Elevators from the Convention Centre Lobby or from the South Block Parking may be used to reach HLRC.
- Entry/Exit from the rear of HLRC (near CAPART Library) will remain closed.
- Only members of IHC will be allowed access into the HLRC, on tapping their RFID Cards on the Reader placed outside the HLRC. Members will be asked to provide their membership numbers in case they do not bring their RFID Cards. Access is not allowed for Dependents currently. No other persons (other than IHC personnel), including attendants will be allowed entry. Institutional Members of the IHC have been provided membership cards and staff of member institutions may use the HLRC on presentation of the membership card of their institution. The Institutional Member is responsible for material borrowed by any of its staff.
- Only a maximum of 30 members will be allowed in the HLRC at any given time. Primary Member and Spouse will be counted separately.
- Since the number of seats in the HLRC are now limited to 30, any member wishing to use HLRC are encouraged to call at 011-43662021/011-43662022 the previous day between 10:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., to register a request for visiting the HLRC, the next day. Request for use, if available will be confirmed to the member on a first-come, first-served basis and also forwarded by email/SMS to the member.
- Members who have not pre-booked may also call on the day they wish to come and, if seating is available over and above the pre-booked number, a confirmation for visiting the HLRC will be emailed/sent by SMS to the member.
- Walk-in members will be allowed access, provided seating is available in the HLRC within the prescribed limit of 30. However, we advise members to call and check if seats are available.

- Those members who just wish to return books/periodicals and not borrow or use the reading area, may come without having to pre-book and return the borrowed material at the entrance of HLRC.
- Material for return may also be sent through messenger. However, it is reiterated that no messenger/attendant will be allowed inside the HLRC.
- Toilets are functional on the first floor and may be used.

Advisory regarding Safety Norms requested to be followed

- As per order issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, persons above 65 years of age, persons with co-morbidities, pregnant women are advised to stay at home.
- Members residing in Containment Zones are not allowed to come to the Centre/HLRC.
- Members who have a medical history of cough/cold/fever in the last one month are advised not to visit the Centre/HLRC.
- Members are advised to download the Aarogya Setu App on their compatible mobiles and regularly update their health status before entering the Centre.
- Should any member subsequent to visiting the HLRC, test positive for the Covid-19, HLRC should be informed immediately.
- Masks must be worn at all times: while entering the Centre and in the HLRC in keeping with Government of India guidelines. Staff members on duty in the HLRC have been advised to monitor this strictly. Members are advised that those not adhering to this requirement will not be allowed to use the HLRC.
- All members entering HLRC will be checked for temperature again at the entry of HLRC.
- A hands-free sanitiser dispenser is kept at the entrance to HLRC must be used before entering HLRC.
- Hands-free sanitiser dispensers are also kept inside HLRC for the convenience of members.
- Members are also encouraged to wash their hands frequently with soap and water, as feasible.
- Social distancing is expected to be strictly observed: a minimum of six feet.

Borrowing and Returning of Books and Periodicals

- Members are requested to use the Self Issue/Return Kiosk as much as possible. Sanitiser is provided alongside.
- Staff on duty will assist if books are required to be returned/ issued at the Readers Advisory Desk.
- Members are requested to stand behind the barricade to speak to staff at the Readers Advisory Desk.
- All books returned by members will be quarantined for a period of four days before they are returned to the shelves.
- Inter-library loan service remains suspended at present.
- Members can borrow three books (inclusive of all sections) and five back issues of select periodicals at a time, for a period of fifteen days.
- Two extensions of the period of loan for another fifteen days are possible for books, provided there is no reservation and the book is brought to the HLRC or the request for renewal is communicated through telephone/e-mail.
- After two extensions, the books and periodicals have to be returned to the HLRC and cannot be renewed for a third time.
- Books from the Reference Section cannot be borrowed.

Overdue Books/Periodicals

- From September 1, 2005, the Habitat Library & Resource Centre has been levying overdue charges as indicated below for books and periodicals not returned/renewed on time:
-Rs. 2/- per day for the first ten days.
-Rs. 5/- per day from the eleventh day onwards.
- All payments (fines, printing, photocopying, scanning and other charges if any) will be accepted through UPI transactions only.
- Borrowing privileges will be withdrawn for members not returning items borrowed from the HLRC for three months after the due date of return stamped on the book(s)/ periodical(s).
- Access to HLRC and all its services will be denied to members not returning items borrowed from the HLRC for six months after the scheduled date of return stamped on the items.
- Lending privileges will be barred for members not paying fines of returned overdue documents.

Reservation of books

- Books available for lending, but not on the shelf, may be reserved, either from the Readers Advisory Desk or through OPAC/WEBOPAC. Reservations will be made on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Reservations will also be accepted for books displayed as New Arrivals, and will be dealt with on a first-come, first-served basis. At any given time, only ten reservations will be entertained from a member.
- When books recommended by members are acquired by HLRC and displayed as New Arrivals, the recommendation will count as a reservation and will be sequenced accordingly.

Recommending additions to the HLRC Collection

- Books/Periodicals/Audio-Visuals may be recommended by members through OPAC/WEBOPAC or by email/telephone and in person. Decision to add the item vests with the India Habitat Centre.

Care of Books/Periodicals

- Once a book/periodical is issued, it is wholly the responsibility of the member to safeguard and return the issued materials to HLRC in good condition and on time.

- Before borrowing book(s)/periodical(s), members are encouraged to check that the book(s)/periodical(s) are in proper condition. If they are found to be mutilated or damaged on return, the member will be held responsible for the damage and (s)he will have to replace or pay the price of the damaged book/periodical.

Loss or Damage

- Dog-earing the pages of books, marking or scribbling on them, tearing or damaging pages or otherwise spoiling books is not allowed and amounts to causing damage to the books/information resources.
- If a member loses or damages any book that (s)he has borrowed, it will have to be replaced by a new copy of the same or a later edition at his/her cost. In the event of the book not being available or being out of print, the published price of the book will have to be reimbursed to the HLRC.
- If a member loses or damages any periodical that (s)he has borrowed, it will have to be replaced by a new copy of the same at his/her cost. In the event of the periodical issue not being available, the published price of the particular issue will have to be reimbursed to the HLRC.
- The HLRC reserves the right to determine the price of a rare/out-of-print/unobtainable book/periodical.
